Inspector 2023 Promotion Process

Closing date: 17 February 2023

Message from the Chief Constable

My vision for Staffordshire Police begins with the community it serves and the outcomes it wants for them – safety and confidence. It recognises that the Police are critical to securing this through a local, visible, and responsive service which cares for victims, the people who work for it and the partnerships that improve the life and opportunities across Staffordshire and Stoke-on-Trent.

During my first year as Chief Constable, the force's focus has been on local policing, building partnerships, and care for victims. I want a local policing mindset to be at the core of everything we do – not just in neighbourhood or response policing but in the way the whole service engages with victims of crime, our communities and our partners.

First, I want us to deliver a local police service which is tailored for individuals, families and communities who feel listened to and supported. We have developed a new policing model which has seen more officers based and addressing challenges in local communities. This will mean officers can respond to emergencies quicker, but it will also allow them to spend more time in the heart of local communities, working with partners to tackle crime at its root cause. The safety and security of our communities is far too important to be left to the police service alone, and effective local partnerships will enable us to solve local issues and prevent crime and anti-social behaviour.

Second, we are developing a sharper focus on caring for victims. This includes getting even better at dealing with calls and digital enquires, ensuring the most vulnerable victims get justice and bespoke care, or tackling the most harmful offenders in the home, on our streets or across our Force area and beyond.

Finally, I've made a clear commitment to care for the staff, officers and volunteers who work for Staffordshire Police. They work under incredibly challenging circumstances, dealing with difficult situations on a daily basis that most of us don't witness in a lifetime. Ensuring the organisation cares for them and provides them with the right support will ensure they can provide the outstanding service to the public that they passionately want to.

The next year will continue to be challenging and to be clear, we need to do better and be better in serving our communities. However, I am confident that we have the passion, dedication and knowledge to rise to that challenge, and that the public in Staffordshire will be proud of the women and men who serve and protect them every hour of every day in every part of our County.

I wish you every success with your application.

Policing in Staffordshire

Situated within the West Midlands, Staffordshire is home to more than 1.1 million people in an area covering 1,000 square miles. Spanning from the rural moorlands to major urban areas such as Stoke-on-Trent, Tamworth, Cannock and Burton-upon-Trent, Staffordshire borders Cheshire, Derbyshire, Leicestershire, Warwickshire, Worcestershire and Shropshire.

Around 3,500 colleagues make up Staffordshire Police, comprising around 1,885 officers, together with community support officers, police staff and volunteers.

The force's current operating model was implemented in June 2022. It helped the force refocus and prioritise neighbourhood policing, problem solving with partners and the prevention of crime, amongst changes to investigations and response policing.

Crime, however, continues to become more complex and demand for the police more sustained. We need to be more embedded in, and more visible to, local communities.

Key elements of the local policing model launched in June 2022:

- Two Local Policing Commands – one for Stoke-on-Trent City and one for the County, aligned to the two top-tier local authorities.
- Ten Local Policing Teams (LPTs) – each with:
  - Neighbourhood officers and PCSOs
  - Response Officers
  - Harm Reduction Hubs – specialist problem solving teams who tackle high-demand and anti-social behaviour crimes to drive down demand and repeat offending.
- Two local Criminal Investigation Department (CID) teams – one within City Command and one within County Command.
- A Specialist Crime Command – supporting our most serious and complex crime demands, enabling us to improve the service we provide to the most vulnerable people.
- Force Contact and Operations – At the heart of the organisation to ensure we provide a responsive, effective and bespoke service across the whole of Staffordshire.

Fundamentally, this model will support our focus on local policing, with better opportunities to improve local knowledge and ownership, care for victims and communities, and how we effectively work with partners to address vulnerability and harm.

Staffordshire Commissioner's priorities

Prevent harm and protect people

Prevent harm and protect people (particularly children and those that are vulnerable) by ensuring they are appropriately safeguarded and receive the help and support they need.

Support victims and witnesses

Ensure victims and witnesses are provided with exceptional specialist support services so they feel able to cope and recover from the impact of crime and ASB.

Reduce offending and reoffending

Ensure people are challenged and supported to make life choices that will prevent them from offending and perpetrators don't reoffend. Doing so will mean fewer victims of crime.

A more effective criminal justice system

Ensure Staffordshire Police, the Crown Prosecution Service, Courts, the National Probation Service and HM Prison Service all work seamlessly so that effective justice is delivered more quickly.
